

THE CANADIAN ASSOCIATION OF INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS

And

ROTHESAY NETHERWOOD SCHOOL

*Invite CAIS schools to submit nominations for the J.D.Y. Hickman Award for Volunteerism
2007-08*

Criteria:

This award is presented annually to the most deserving CAIS student for service rendered unselfishly to the community outside their school. The nature of this volunteerism may take any form, but must represent a significant contribution of time and effort and make a significant difference to the community to which the effort is given. The recipient may not be employed in any way by the organization for which she or he is volunteering or receive any financial remuneration for the services rendered. There is no monetary value to this award.

Presentation:

It is the intention of the donors of this award that the recipient should be presented with a plaque at their school presented by the CAIS president or by his/ her designate.

Naming of the Award:

J.D.Y. Hickman was a graduate of Rothesay Collegiate School in 1942. He was a full-time volunteer, directing the business side of the school operations as a volunteer for 16 years. Without this incredible energy and effort, the school would not have survived. He has made a difference.

Guidelines

1. Nominations are open to all students enrolled in a CAIS school.
2. Nominations may be made by a fellow student, friend or teacher. They must be supported by the signature of both a teacher and the Head of School. Nominations may be made in English or French. There is no limit to the number of students that a school may nominate.
3. All nominations must be typed, double-spaced, and single-sided. No nomination should be more than three pages in length. Letters of support may accompany the nomination.

Deadline: April 30, 2008

Nominations should be mailed, e-mailed or faxed to:

J.D.Y. Hickman Award
Rothesay Netherwood School
40 College Hill Road
Rothesay, NB E2E 5H1
Fax: 506-848-0851
kitchenp@rns.cc

Inquiries should be directed to:
Stephanie Buchanan
Assistant to the Head of School
506-847-8224
buchanans@rns.cc